DAYNA STEELE SPEECH PRESENTATIONS

FIND YOUR INNER ROCK STAR

Build your own stage for success

I'M WITH THE BAND

Networking your way backstage into any business

THE OPENING ACT

Commencement keynotes and freshman orientations

- Learn the four essential steps to becoming a rock star in everything you do
- Discover the one thing that will keep clients and customers coming back for more
- And, once and for all, find out what it really takes to develop key relationships

AUDIO/VIDEO/OTHER REQUIREMENTS

A clip-on wireless microphone system is preferred. If a wireless set-up is not available, a microphone with a free standing microphone stand or a podium with a microphone stand are acceptable.

A projector and large screen with access to additional power.

If possible, divide seating into three sections instead of two (eliminating the center aisle). And, rope off the back rows until needed, encouraging people to fill the front rows first.

Rock music playing prior to the speech will put your audience in the mood! Some planners have even added Guitar Hero stations around the room prior to the event.

Dayna Steele's Eleven Business Tips/Ode to Spinal Tap can be printed and distributed to the audience. The print out is available on her website at <http://www.daynasteele.com/planners.htm>.
