To whom it may concern:

It is my immense pleasure to recommend Dayna Steele for your next keynote speaker. Dayna was referred to us by several sources. Her wit and unique delivery were a tremendous success with the entire audience of mostly women of various ages.

Dayna's presentation focused on setting the stage for success and included four foundations: passion, knowledge, networking and appreciation. She hit all the right notes with our audience - energy, enthusiasm, education, and entertainment - and we will gladly consider future opportunities with which to utilize Dayna's speaking skills and subject knowledge.

I know you will not be disappointed if you call upon this extraordinary woman to speak to your organization.

Sincerely,

Lisa Teubner
